

BIG FOUR FAST TRAIN HELD UP?

PERSISTENT RUMOR IN TERRE HAUTE THAT ROBBERY WAS COMMITTED EARLY WEDNESDAY MORNING, DENIED BY RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

POLICE DENY STATEMENT

Despite denials of police and Big Four officials that the early morning train from the west was held up just before it reached Terre Haute Wednesday morning, persistent reports from points along the line prompted the belief that an effort was being made to conceal facts. Reports brought to Terre Haute Wednesday said that the train was entered by robbers who went through one coach. It was said the robbers escaped just before the train reached Terre Haute.

Activity of the police in the vicinity of the Big Four bridge and on the line between Terre Haute and St. Marys early Wednesday morning was said by officials to have no connection with the reported robbery. The police said they were looking for men who are alleged to have picked pockets on a west-bound Big Four train Tuesday afternoon.

The train on which the holdup is said to have been committed is the fast New York train No. 46. It is due in Terre Haute at 3:30 o'clock in the morning. The report Wednesday of the robbery of the New York train brought to light facts regarding the robbery of the American Express Company's car between Indianapolis and Terre Haute a week ago.

Members of the police department say the robber was seen to leave the car near Sixth and One-half street and run north, but it was impossible to capture him. When the car was opened it was found that a box containing a fine set of furs had been opened, but nothing was taken from the box. The loss to the express company could not be learned, according to the messenger until after the car had reached its destination and the articles checked over.

When it was first learned that there was a man in the car railroadmen tried the side door on the south side and found it fastened on the inside. When they crawled under the train to get to the other side the man jumped out and escaped. The affair was not made public with the hope of arresting the man before he could learn of the activities of the police and the railroad detectives.

Captain of Detectives Dorley is investigating the work of two pickpockets, who, it is alleged, are "working" the trains on the Big Four and Vandalia railroads between St. Louis and Indianapolis. Complaint of work done by the train pickpockets was given the local detective department on Wednesday morning when a land agent who gave his name as McCloskey complained to the police that he had been robbed of about $20 in money while on a Big Four train, en route to St. Louis from Indianapolis.

McCloskey reported that his pockets had been picked while he was occupying a seat in a day coach. The time of the robbery was during the afternoon in broad day light. McCloskey when he arrived in Terre Haute entered a complaint with the police and gave a good description of two men whom he believes committed the robbery. Both men, it is understood, left the train at Terre Haute—Terre Haute Star.

Train No. 46 is due here at 4:07 o'clock in the morning. Local employees at the Big Four station, stated Thursday morning that they had heard nothing of the supposed hold-up. The train arrived here a few minutes late Wednesday morning.

BETA FRATERNITY AND FRIENDS ARE ENTERTAINED.

BRAZIL, Ind., Dec. 21.—One of the most notable and early holiday events occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carpenter, on East National avenue, when they entertained the members of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity of the DePauw university, at Greencastle and their lady friends, in compliment to their two sons, Don and Guy, who are attending the university this year, and are also members of the fraternity.

The social function was in the nature of a dinner party and it was an elaborate affair. The dinner was served in eight courses and at 6 o'clock. Later a Xmas tree was the feature.

A special car was chartered for the company, which was composed of thirty-three couples.

BELNAP HOEL CHANGES HANDS

DEAL WHEREBY INDIANAPOLIS MAN BECOMES OWNER OF LOCAL HOSTELRY CLOSED UP THURSDAY AFTERNOON—THE CONSIDERATION $17,000.

MR. BELNAP TO RETIRE

On next Wednesday morning, J. M. Belnap, for twenty years the owner of the Belnap Hotel, will turn the property over to the new owner, B. Z. Caplinger, of Indianapolis. The deal whereby Mr. Belnap sold the property to Mr. Caplinger, was closed Thursday afternoon. The consideration was $17,000. Mr. Belnap states that the new owner intends to remodel the building and make extensive improvements. A garage is to be built on the one-hundred feet of ground in the rear of the building, which also was purchased by Mr. Caplinger.

Mr. Caplinger will conduct the business personally. He is a member of the Indiana Automobile Society, and is identified with an automobile concern, it is said.

The retirement of Mr. Belnap ends the business career of a man who has been in the hotel business in this city probably longer than any other.

Mr. Belnap says that he and Mrs. Belnap will leave Greencastle shortly. They will go to Florida where they will spend the winter. They will locate permanently in Indianapolis.

THE MEN AND RELIGION MOVEMENT REACHES GREENCASTLE

At a meeting of the local ministerial association Tuesday it was decided to call together a committee representing the churches of Greencastle to consider the "Men and Religion" movement and plans for a local campaign. The committee met with the pastors Wednesday night at the city library and decided to have a banquet for men some time in January, at which this great movement would be presented by men probably from outside of Greencastle, who are in touch with it, and plans perfected for work in this city. The "Men and Religion" movement is an organized effort, which will cover the entire country, to win men to Christ. It is a movement among Christian men, led by Mr. Fred B. Smith and others, who are noted for work of this kind. The various denominational brotherhoods are participating in this movement together with the Young Men's Christian Associations over the country.

It proposes in every community to stimulate evangelism, work for boys, Bible study and social service, aid the cause of missions and promote more active Christian work in general by men and for men. Nearly a hundred large cities in the country will be centers of this movement and from them the work will branch out to other cities and towns. There will be an eight-day campaign in Indianapolis, beginning January 29, 1912, and Greencastle hopes to be in touch with the work there and receive much help therefrom. Many cities have already had campaigns.

The ministers have also arranged for a union watch-night service, to be held at the Christian church on Sunday, evening, Dec. 31, and also for a union observance of the "Week of Prayer," which occurs January 7 to 14 inclusive.

Funeral of Mrs. Ivan Huffman. The body of Mrs. Ivan Huffman who died suddenly in California the first of the week, will be brought to her home near Reelsville, arriving here Monday. The funeral will be Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence conducted by the Rev. Cornelius Airhart. Burial will be in the Forest Hill cemetery. Douglas Huffman, Jack Huffman, Greeley Huffman and Addy Huffman, brothers of Ivan Huffman, and Clem and Ross Huffman, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Huffman, will go to St. Louis to meet Mr. Huffman and daughter, Lois, who are accompanying the body here.

HORSE AND WAGON DISAPPEAR FROM SQUARE.

Model Laundry Outfit Found in the Belnap Hotel Barn After Several Men Search for Over Three Hours.

The disappearance of a horse and wagon owned by Jesse Holloway, proprietor of the Model Laundry, about 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, caused no little excitement for several hours. The horse was found about 8:30 o'clock. The driver of the horse had left the outfit standing in front of the Greek Candy Kitchen, while he delivered a package of laundry in the Owl Drug store. When he returned the horse and wagon had disappeared.

The horse was seen going east on Franklin street about 5:45 o'clock. The animal was going at a rapid gate and acted as if it was being driven. Mr. Holloway and several other men immediately began a search for the outfit. After several hours search it was finally found in the Belnap Hotel barn. It was untied, but bore evidence of a hard drive. It is believed that some person took the horse and after driving to their destination, turned the animal loose. It then wandered to the place where found on its own accord. The animal was stabled in the Belnap barn until about a week ago.

SCHOOL HEAD URGES MARRIAGE

DENVER, Col., Dec. 20.—Henry A. Buchtel, chancellor of the University of Denver, and a former governor of Colorado, in an address to his student body today said that he was so much in favor of young people being married that, if any of his students contemplated such a step, he would not only provide the license out of his own funds, but would perform the ceremony free of charge. The offer applies only, it is understood, to students at the university.—Rev. Buchtel is a graduate of DePauw.

CHECK FORGER NOW IN ELWOOD

MAN, SUPPOSED TO BE THE SAME CLEVER FRAUD THAT WAS HERE SOME TIME AGO, IS HAVING SUCCESS.

PASSES THREE BAD CHECKS

ELWOOD, Ind., December 20.—A young man believed to be the one who defrauded merchants of Kokomo, Anderson and Tipton, passed three fraudulent checks on grocers and harness men here, yesterday.

At the grocery store of M. E. Bicknell, he presented a check for $12, signed by Austin, Jackson, a farmer and school teacher, of Duck Creek township. He bought groceries and received $7 in change. He left the store, saying he would return for the groceries, and went to the harness shop of C. Austin, where he passed another $12 check on Jackson. He bought two halters and a storm front for a buggy, but did not take the goods with him. He received $8 in change. Then he went to the grocery store of J. Craigmile, where he presented a check for $12.50, purporting to be signed by Mrs. Dan Clymer. He received $8 in change. The stranger said he would step out and call his boys in to get warm before they started back to the farm. The clerk followed, but the man walked into a cigar store and ran out through the back door.

Using the same tactics, a young man, supposed to be the same person, attempted to pass a bogus check at Hibbit's Harness shop here about two weeks ago.

FUNERAL OF HUGH J. MCGOWAN TO BE HELD FRIDAY MORNING.

All Cars on Interurban Will Be Stopped for Few Minutes Friday Morning as Tribute to Deceased Traction Magnate.

The funeral services of Hugh J. McGowan, president of the Indianapolis & Terminal Company, whose death occurred suddenly Tuesday evening at his home in Indianapolis, will be held at St. S. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Fourteenth and Meridian streets, Indianapolis, Friday morning at 10 o'clock. As a tribute to the traction magnate all cars on each division of the T. H. I. & E. lines will be held for several moments. All employees of the company were given an opportunity Thursday afternoon to view the body of their late employer. This action was taken at the special request of Mrs. McGowan, widow of the deceased. On each division of the company collections were taken today by boy floral offerings, to be used in decorating the casket. The employees of the company here contributed freely to the fund.

BESSER-GLAZEBROOK NUPTIALS LAST NIGHT.

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Beck, at eight o'clock Wednesday night, occurred the wedding of Miss Ara Lee Glazebrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Glazebrook, of Bensleeleer and Daniel Craig Besser, junior member of the Besser Milling Co., firm. The ceremony was witnessed only by the members of Rev. Beck's family. Mr. and Mrs. Besser will make their home in the Thad Peck property on Vine street, which Mr. Besser recently purchased from Mr. Peck.

The bride, who is a niece of Mrs. W. P. Sackett, has made her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Sackett for the past four years. She is a popular and highly esteemed young woman. Mr. Besser, who is connected with his father in the Besser Milling Company, is one of the progressive young business men of Greencastle.

EXPECT A LARGE VOTE TOMORROW

IF WEATHER CONTINUES AS PLEASANT AS IT IS TODAY THE DEMOCRATS WILL POLL BIG VOTE IN NOMINATING ELECTION.

CANDIDATES ACTIVE TODAY

An exceptionally large vote for a primary election is predicted for tomorrow when the Democrats of Putnam county will nominate their candidates for several offices. That is an exceptionally large vote will be polled provided the weather remains as pleasant as it is today.

Several hotly contested races will do much toward bringing out all of the voters and it would not be surprising if as many as 2500 votes were cast tomorrow. About 2390 is a normal primary vote, although as many as 3000 Democratic votes have been cast at general elections in the county.

Today was an active one with many of the candidates and their supporters and the court house lobby was crowded during the greater part of the day. The polls will be open in Greencastle township and many of the out townships at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is predicted that the result of the election will be known by 11 o'clock tomorrow night. Returns from the election will be received and compiled at the court house.

A change has been made in the Greencastle township election board for tomorrow, Dan O'Connell being named to serve as judge in place of Charley Keifer. John H. James will serve as a judge in place of Mr. O'Connell. Frank Talbott and Walter Cooper will serve as sheriffs.

TEXAN IS BORN ARMLESS, BUT OVERCOMES HANDICAP

Coming into the world without arms 43 years ago, Aaron Smith of Fort Worth, Tex., has won success in two professions, besides rearing an orphan brother and sister, and caring for his aged father and his own family of three. At present Mr. Smith is editor of the Transmitter, the only independent telephone magazine south of Chicago, and is proprietor of a prosperous job printing establishment.

Because of the expedients which he has been forced by necessity to invent for taking care of himself and conducting his business and the wonderful faculty which he has acquired in doing things that would be impossible feats for normal human beings, Mr. Smith has been offered large sums to appear on the vaudeville stage.

Mr. Smith was born in Miller county, Arkansas, near the Texas-Arkansas line. He was educated mostly in the public schools. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in Mount Pleasant in 1889. In 1893 he bought the Mount Pleasant Times-Review and later bought the Weatherford Democrat, which he published for nine years. He went to Fort Worth as editor of the Co-Operator, official organ of the Farmers' union at that time, with a wide circulation. It was only two years ago that he took up the Transmitter and put it on a paying basis.

When he was a boy Mr. Smith's feet took the place of hands. He could do most anything with his feet that a normal man can do with his hands, including the writing of letters in a clear, flowing "hand."

In his office Mr. Smith has few appliances that would not be found in any office. His telephone has a fixed receiver, as well as the ordinary kind. When it rings he lifts the ordinary receiver off the hook with his teeth and listens through the stationary receiver.

He now does all of his writing by holding his pen in his teeth. He uses an ordinary pen, never a fountain pen. It is a singular fact that his "hand writing," whether he holds the pen with his toes or between his teeth, never varies.

Just 63 years ago Barbara Spannagel, an orphan, came to this country from Germany in a sailing vessel. She was alone and friendless, but soon became a nurse in the family of John J. Jurgen, a daughter, married John Bauer, Barbara went along with her young mistress. Mrs. Bauer was only 26 years old when she died, leaving two children. Miss Spannagel took care of them until they grew up. Both are now married and have children, all of whom came under the old nursemaid's care.

Miss Spannagel can't understand the servant girl problem at all. Being in the employ of one family for 62 years does not appeal to her as strange, for she thinks that any servant could do the same.

Arthur M. Asquith, son of the British premier, has gone to Buenos Ayres, where he will work for a salary, in the employ of a commercial concern, to learn practical business methods and fit himself for a busy career.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, twice nominated for president of the United States by the Equal Rights party, is now a practicing attorney in Washington, D. C. She was the first woman to be admitted to practice at the bar of the United States Supreme Court. Lord Glenconner, recently made high commissioner to the general assembly of the Church of Scotland, received $10,000 a year for his work, which consists in the main of one speech a year at the opening of the assembly. He is a brother-in-law of Premier Asquith, and until raised in rank, not so long ago, was Sir Edward Tennant. Prince Thomas, Duke of Genoa, commander of the Italian navy, is an able sea-fighter and a tactician of unusual ability. He has directed Italy's sea forces since the declaration of war with Turkey, and his shrewdness is evidenced by the preparedness of the navy for immediate action and the perfect distribution of his vessels. Miss Emily Metcalf, the oldest active school teacher in Ohio, and perhaps in the United States, is as enthusiastic as ever about her work, despite her eighty-one years. She lives at Hudson, and for considerably over half a century has been instructing classes.

Slang in Court.

Slang has at last compelled the court to take judicial notice of it. An employee in talking to his foreman referred to a belt he was compelled to use, which had a loose lap, as "rotten," and the court, on appeal from a judgment for damages for an injury resulting from the breaking of the belt (Hortman vs. Staver Carriage company, 153 Ill. App. 130), refused to hold that he meant "decayed," and said:

"We will take notice of slang phrases which obtain in this times in all walks of life, and not do violence to apparent intention by indulging in a literal interpretation of the words used, when such interpretation would do violence to the plain meaning intended by the words when taken in the connection in which they were used. In stigmatizing the belt as 'rotten' plaintiff plainly intended to convey the idea that it was his opinion that the loose lap was a menace and danger to himself.—West Publishing Company's Docket.

But Bristow Didn't Want To.

At the Country club luncheon to President Taft at Hutchinson one of the guests desired to secure a valuable souvenir of the occasion. So he got a piece of writing paper and asked each of the principal guests to write a line of sentiment and sign it.

President Taft led off with an observation on golf and signed it. Other guests followed suit. When the paper reached Senator Bristow he scratched his head a moment, and remarked, "Oh, what shall I say?"

"Say any old thing," put in Senator Emerson Carey of Reno. "Just write 'I am for Taft.'"

As quick as a flash President Taft turned toward Bristow and said significantly: "If you want to."—Kansas City Journal.

Modernized Axiom.

"Experience," said the ready-made philosopher, "is the best teacher."

"Yes," replied the man who has had troubles with Wall Street, "but you're so liable to go broke paying the first installment on tuition."

Its Nature.

"Why do you call your new hair tonic 'A Sensation in the Market?'"

"Because it is a hair-raising experience."

GREAT PHOTOPLAYS AT OPERA HOUSE That are Moving Pictures. Program Tonight

"The Prodigal," an exciting drama of love, intrigue, and a woman's revenge; introducing a realistic duelling scene between a man and a woman, traveling incognito. "The Knight Errant," a graphic and picturesque drama of the Crusader; a delightful comedy satire on producing a motion picture. "Bob and Rowdy," a story of a small boy and a small dog. Their devotion to each other through thick and thin, forms a pretty little comedy with a touch of pathos. On the same reel, "The Hair Restorer and the Indians," a and sells hair tonic which ganizes a traveling medicine show to the Indians that they start out to proves such a stimulating beverage to the Indians that they sit out to scalp the whole crowd of actors; as their hair is entirely wigs, no harm is done, but it creates a good laugh. Our shows are good; this one, however, is extra good; go see for yourself. Two shows—first begins at 7:30 Admission, 5 and 10 cents. Watch for Dec. 25th. Something coming for you. Let every one rejoice. The litch string hangs on the outside; if you have not the admission, pull the string, walk in, and enjoy yourself.

PERSONAL

Mrs. George Robinson, of Clay
City, was here, on business, today.

Mrs. James McVey and Mrs.
Leonard Christie, of Coatesville, spent the day in Greencastle.

Miss Florence Williamson, of Indianapolis, will spend Christmas
here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
G. H. Williamson.

A statistical report, compiled by Charles A. Greathouse, superintendent of schools, shows that there are 114 school houses in Putnam county. In Owen county there are 94; Parke county, 111, and in Clay
count 113.

The last classes before the Xmas recess of DePauw university were held Thursday morning. Large numbers of students left Thursday afternoon for their homes to spend the holidays. The grade and high schools will have classes tomorrow, dismissing in the afternoon for the two weeks' vacation.

Dr. J. A. Moag, a son-in-law of P.
R. Christie, of this city, was elected president of the Indianapolis Dental Society, at the meeting of the organization in the Denison Hotel in Indianapolis this week. Dr. Moag is well known in Greencastle. His wife, Mrs. Moag, formerly was Miss Laura Christie, of this city.

Rev. G. H. L. Beeman attended a conference on church finance held at the Y. M. C. A. building in Indianapolis, Wednesday. The meeting was participated in by ministers and officers of churches in Indianapolis. The principal speaker was Rev. A. F. McGarrath of New York, church finance expert.

Unless the farmers of the state
come to the support of the binder twine industry at the state prison
next year, Governor Marshall and Warden Fogarty will recommend that the next general assembly abolish the plant. The announcement was made Wednesday following a conference between the Governor and the warden, when the warden filed his annual report concerning the twine plant. "When the plant was established in 1906, binder twine was selling in Indiana for 12
and 13 cents a pound," said the Governor. "Now it is selling at 6 1/2 to 6 3/4 cents, and there is no doubt but the trust has been forced to give the farmers these figures because of the work of the plant at the state prison, which established the lower prices. The plant was established and has been maintained in the interests of the farmers of the state, but they have not supported it as they should. The plant makes about one million pounds a year,
and has a capacity of three million pounds. The records show almost as much twine sold outside the state as inside. The farmers of the state use ten million pounds of twine a year, so you see the state prison is supplying only a very small percent. of the total. Its effect has been, however, to bring down the price on all twine."

Will Young, the negro confined in the county jail, was examined by an insanity board Wednesday. The board as yet has not reported on its finding, but the report probably will be made tomorrow. The negro at times is rational and at others he seems to be insane.

Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, of San Francisco, and the Rev. Mr.
Evans, district superintendent of the southern district of California of the Methodist Episcopal church, were here for a few hours Wednesday the guests of President and Mrs. Mc-Connell. Bishop Hughes and the Rev. Mr. Evans stopped off here on their way home from the East.

EXPRESS COMPANIES FEEL CHRISTMAS BUSH.

Both the local American and the Adams Express office employees are in the midst of the Christmas rush.
Extra wagons are being used by each office. George Pfahler is the extra driver for the American company and Drew Miller for the Adams.
Both offices are piled high with the Christmas packages.

When an attempt was made to back a freight car from the switch
at the interurban station at noon today the front trucks of the car left the rails. The car was far enough from the main track so as not to hinder a passing passenger car. It required only a few minutes to get the car back on the track.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peck and son, Eugene, of Chicago, will spend Christmas here with Dr. J. G. Mc-Coy and other friends and relatives.

Freddie Ash, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ash, died at about 1 o'clock Wednesday night after an illness of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held at the home Saturday morning.

Telephone Voice.
The voice heard over the telephone is a mechanical reproduction of the original voice and differs from that of a speaking tube or megaphone, where the sound waves produced by the speaker at one end are transmitted directly to the other end. In the telephone the diaphragm of the transmitter is caused to vibrate by the sound waves produced by some one talking into the transmitter mouthpiece. This diaphragm is connected with a small receptacle having a flexible front and partially filled with granular carbon. This carbon offers resistance to electric current in proportion to the mechanical pressure brought upon it. The diaphragm, therefore, in vibrating produces a varying pressure against the carbon. The carbon is included in an electric circuit, so that the variation in its resistance will vary the current strength in the circuit.

Wireless Telegraphy in East Africa.

The railway and the telegraph are playing an important part in the economic conquest of Africa. Within the last few months two wireless telegraph stations have been established at Muanza and Bukoba, German East Africa, by the government. Each of these has a radius of 600 kilometers (373 miles). Muanza is now the terminus of the land lines of the German colony. According to newspaper statement a powerful additional wireless station will soon be opened at Tabora, equipped with apparatus for transmission to a distance of nearly 2,500 miles. With this station in operation the merchants and authorities in German East Africa can communicate with the Cameroons, and thence by the German West African cable to Europe, and be in an independent position instead of having, as at present,
to avail themselves of the English
cable company's line via Zanzibar, Mombasa and Aden, or Zanzibar and Cape Town.

Ireland's Loss in Population.

Ireland has 76,000 less inhabitants than it had ten years ago. The birth rate in the Emerald Isle has not declined and births far exceed deaths, but the progressive young Irishmen desert their native island for the United States, Canada and Australia.
